

4. As hereinabove provided, Duke K. McCall, Jr. shall serve as Trustee for the first six (6) months from the inception date of this Trust; if at the end of six (6) months from the inception date of this Trust the grantors' children desire, they shall elect from among themselves another Trustee who shall serve until the expiration date of this Trust or until two or more of the grantors' children call for another election of a Trustee at which time another election shall be held; if the position of Trustee shall become vacant for any reason or by the happening of any event, including death, the oldest living child of the grantors shall immediately become Trustee until such time as an election can be held by the grantors' children; if at the end of six (6) months from the inception date of this Trust the grantors' children do not desire to hold an election for the naming of another Trustee, then Duke K. McCall, Jr. shall serve as Trustee until such time as an election may be called for as hereinabove provided.

5. In the administration of the trusts, the Trustee shall have the following powers, all of which shall be exercised in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries:

(a) To hold and continue to hold as an investment the property received hereunder, and any additional property which may be received by it, so long as it deems proper, and to invest and reinvest in any securities or property, whether or not income-producing, deemed by it to be for the best interest
