

(q) The Trustee may freely act under all or any of the powers by this agreement given to it in all matters concerning the trusts herein created, after forming its judgment based upon all the circumstances of any particular situation as to the wisest and best course to pursue in the interest of the trusts and the beneficiaries hereunder, without the necessity of obtaining the consent or permission of any person interested therein, or the consent or approval of any court, and notwithstanding that it may also be acting individually, or as Trustee of other trusts, or as agent for other persons or corporations interested in the same matters, or may be interested in connection with the same matters provided, however, that it shall exercise such powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries hereunder.

The powers herein granted to the Trustee may be exercised in whole or in part, from time to time, and shall be deemed to be supplementary to and not exclusive of the general powers of trustees pursuant to law, and shall include all powers necessary to carry the same into effect.

6. No powers of the Trustee enumerated herein or now or hereafter conferred upon the Trustee generally shall be construed to enable the Grantors or the Trustee, or either of them, or any other person, to purchase, exchange or otherwise deal with or dispose of all or any part of the corpus of the trusts for less than an adequate consideration in money

(Continued on next page)