

foreclosure of such lien and the appointment of a receiver for the Unit and ownership interest of such unit co-owner, or for damages or injunction or specific performance or for judgment for payment of money and collection thereof, or for any combination or remedies, or for any other relief. All expenses of the Association in connection with any such actions or proceedings, including court costs and attorneys fees and other fees and expenses, and all damages, liquidated or otherwise, together with interest thereon at the highest rate permissible under the laws of South Carolina at the time until paid, shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting unit co-owner, and shall be added to and deemed part of his respective share of the common expenses, and the Association shall have a lien for all of the same, as well as for non-payment of his respective share of the common expenses, upon the Unit and ownership interest in the General Common Elements of such defaulting unit co-owner and upon all of his additions and improvements thereto. In the event of any such default by any unit co-owner, the Association and the Board of Directors, and the manager or managing agent if so authorized by the Board of Directors, shall have the authority to correct such default, and to do whatever may be necessary for such purpose, and all expenses in connection therewith shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting unit co-owner. Any and all of such rights and remedies may be exercised at any time and from time to time, cumulatively or otherwise, by the Association or the Board of Directors.

XXIII.

JUDICIAL SALES

No judicial sale or a unit nor any interest therein, shall be valid, unless:

A. The sale is to a purchaser approved by the Association, which approval shall be in recordable form, executed by two officers of the Association and delivered to the purchaser; or,

B. The sale is a result of a public sale with open bidding.

C. Any sale, mortgage or lease which is not authorized pursuant to the terms of the Deed, shall be void, unless subsequently approved by the Board of Directors, and said approval shall have the same effect as though it had been given and filed of record simultaneously with the instrument it approved.
