

The initial officers and the manner of filling vacancies of the initial officers shall be as set forth in Article VII of the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation and they shall serve as provided for therein.

THE PRESIDENT

33. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation; he shall preside at all meetings of the members and directors, shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees, shall have general and active management of the business of the corporation, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect.

34. He shall execute all documents and contracts requiring a seal, under the seal of the corporation, except where the same are required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the board of directors to some other officer or agent of the corporation.

THE VICE PRESIDENTS

35. The vice presidents in the order of their seniority shall, in the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the president, and shall perform such other duties as the board of directors shall prescribe.

THE SECRETARY-TREASURER AND ASSISTANTS

36. The secretary shall attend all sessions of the board and all meetings of the members and record all votes and the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall perform like duties for the standing committees when required. He shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members and special meetings of the board of directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors or president, under whose supervision he shall be. He shall keep in safe custody the seal of the corporation and, when authorized by the board, affix the same to any instrument requiring it and, when so affixed, it shall be attested by his signature or by the signature of the treasurer or an assistant secretary.

37. Assistant secretaries in order of their seniority shall, in the absence or disability of the secretary, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the secretary and shall perform such other duties as the board shall prescribe.

38. The treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors.

39. He shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the president and directors, at the regular meetings of the board, or whenever they may require it, an account of all of his transactions as treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation.
