RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS
FOR BURDETT ESTATES

WHEREAS, MARTHA BURDETT, DELLA B. MCKINNEY, AND WILLIAM M. BURDETT are the owners of all that certain real estate in Austin Township, Greenville County, South Carolina known as Burdett Estates and are developing said property as a single subdivision;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants, conditions and obligations herein contained for the benefit of the developers, their heirs and assigns and the future owners of said property, the following restrictive covenants are hereby imposed on a plat of Burdett Estates made by Dalton & Neves, Engineers, dated February, 1971 and recorded on the 1st day of Aug., 1973 in the RMC Office for Greenville County, South Carolina in Plat Book 4-X, Page 60, to-wit:

(1) These lots shall be used solely and exclusively for single-family residential dwellings and shall not be used for commercial or business purposes, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the developers from maintaining temporary field offices and storage on any lot while the subdivision is being developed.

(2) No building shall be erected, placed or altered or any building lot in this subdivision until the building plans, specifications and plot plan showing the location of such building shall have been approved in writing as to conformity and harmony of external design and materials with existing structures in the subdivision and as to location of the building with respect to topograph and finished ground elevation by a committee composed of A. J. McKinney, Sr., William M. Burdett and William M. McKinney, or by a representative designated by said committee. In the event of the death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location or to designate a representative with like authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representative, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within thirty days after said plats and specifications have been submitted to it or in any event, if no suit to enjoin the erection of such buildings or the making of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee, nor their designated representatives, will be entitled to any compensation for services performed, pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of such committee, and of its designated representative, shall cease on and after January 1, 1980, and after said date the approval required in this covenant shall not be required.
