

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA }
 COUNTY OF RICHLAND }

A F F I D A V I T

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Senator James. P. Stevens, Chairman of the South Carolina Tourism Committee, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that the members of the South Carolina Tourism Committee have been polled by mail ballot to obtain their advice on the recommendation of the South Carolina Parks, Recreation and Tourism Commission that the former Tricentennial Piedmont Center on Roper Mountain in Greenville County, South Carolina, be deeded to the School District of Greenville County for use as an environmental science center. Said ballots were returned to me by the Committee members who are:

- Senator James P. Stevens
- Senator Paul M. Moore
- Senator Frank L. Roddey
- Representative Julius H. Baggett
- Representative Charles E. Hodges
- Representative Joseph R. Riley, Jr.
- Mr. Lloyd B. Bell
- Mr. C. Lem Harper
- Mr. Hugh Lanier

The South Carolina Tourism Committee has unanimously concurred with the recommendation of the Parks, Recreation and Tourism Commission.
