

coming to me, and to receive payment of dividends, interest and principal, and to give receipts, releases and acquittances therefor.

(7) To buy, sell, exchange, mortgage, encumber, lease or by any other means whatsoever to acquire or dispose of real property; to execute real property, to manage real property, and to repair, alter, renovate, improve, remodel, erect, or tear down any building or other structure or part thereof.

(8) And generally to transact all my business affairs and interests, as fully and completely as I myself might do it personally present; and to do any and all acts and things which my Attorney shall deem useful, necessary or proper in order to do any of the foregoing acts or to carry out any of the foregoing powers.

My Attorney shall have full power of substitution and revocation, and such substitution or revocation may relate to, or be limited as to time or in any respect as my Attorney shall deem proper.

In view of the fact that situations may arise under this Power of Attorney in which my Attorney in Fact will occupy from a legal standpoint positions in which a conflict of interest is either real or apparent, I hereby declare that the existence of any conflict of interest of whatever nature and however arising shall not in any manner limit any of the powers herein conferred upon my Attorney and she may perform any act which she is authorized to perform under this Power of Attorney, notwithstanding any such conflict of interest. I do hereby ratify and confirm all things so done by my said Attorney, within the scope of the authority herein given, as fully and to the same extent as if by me personally done and performed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 19 day of February, 1974.
