

Section 7. The Board of Directors shall have the power and duty to:

- (a) Call special meetings of the members whenever it deems necessary and shall call a meeting at any time upon written request of one-third of the voting membership;
- (b) Appoint and remove at pleasure all officers, agents, and employees of the Corporation, prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, if any, and require of them such security or fidelity bond as it may deem expedient;
- (c) Conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the Corporation, and to supervise the activities of all Corporation officers, agents, and employees; and to exercise all powers, duties, and authorities vested in or delegated to the Corporation;
- (d) To cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a full statement to the members of the Corporation at their annual meeting or at any special meeting;
- (e) To suspend the voting right or rights of the use of the Corporation's facilities of any member during any period in which such member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Corporation, or, after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for any infraction of the Corporation's published rules and regulations;
- (f) To take whatever action is necessary and authorized by these By-Laws in order to collect the annual or special assessments provided for herein; and, to reduce annual or special assessments without vote when the Board of Directors deem such reduction to be in the best interest of the Corporation.

Section 8. No Director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Corporation; however, any director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

ARTICLE VII.

OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, and they shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors, to serve until the next annual meeting and until their successors have been elected and have qualified.

Section 2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation, subject to the control of the Board of Directors. He shall have general supervision over the affairs and business of the Corporation and, together with the Secretary, shall have authority to sign all documents in the course of the business of the Corporation.

Section 3. The Vice President, in the absence of the President, shall perform all the duties of the President.
