

restoration and repair are sufficient to cover the cost thereof, so that no special assessment is required, then the property shall be restored and repaired, unless three-fourths of the Unit co-owners of this property shall vote to abandon the property, in which case the property shall be removed from the provisions of the law by the recording in the RMC Office for Greenville County, South Carolina an instrument terminating this property, which said instrument shall further set forth the facts effecting the termination, certified by the Association and executed by its President and Secretary. The termination of the property shall become effective upon the recording of said instrument, and the Unit co-owners shall, thereupon, become owners as tenants in common in the property - i.e., the real, personal, tangible and intangible personal property, and any remaining structures of the property, and their undivided interests in the property shall be the same as their undivided interests in the common elements of this property prior to its termination, and the mortgages and liens upon Units shall become mortgages and liens upon the undivided interests of such tenants in common, with the same priority as existed prior to the termination of the property.

(2) If the net insurance proceeds available for restoration and repair are not sufficient to cover the costs thereof, so that a special assessment will be required, and if a majority of the Unit co-owners of this property vote against such special assessment and to abandon the project, then it shall be so abandoned and the property removed from the provisions of the law, and the property terminated, as set forth in Paragraph 6 (b) (1) above, and the unit co-owners shall be tenants in common in the property in such undivided interest of such tenants in common, as
