

Association or which may be lawfully adopted by it, or which may be available at law or in equity, and may prosecute any action or other proceeding to recover any sums due, for damages or injunctive relief or both, or for any other relief. Said rights shall be maintainable by both the Board of Directors and, in a proper case, by an aggrieved co-owner. All expenses in connection with any such action or proceeding, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees and other fees and expenses, and all damages, liquidated or otherwise, together with interest thereon at the highest rate permissible under the laws of South Carolina, shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting unit owner and shall be added to and deemed part of his respective share of the common expenses, and the Association shall have a lien for all of the same, as well as for nonpayment of his respective share of the common expenses, upon the unit and ownership in the common elements of such defaulting unit owner and upon all of his additions and improvements thereto.

2. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or to an aggrieved unit owner pursuant to the terms of this Declaration or as provided by law shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies nor shall it preclude the party exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies and privileges as may be available to such party at law or in equity.

3. The failure of the Developer or the Association or any aggrieved unit owner to enforce any right, privilege, covenant or condition which may be granted pursuant to the Act, this Declaration, By-Laws or rules and regulations adopted by the Association shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Developer, Association or aggrieved unit owner to enforce such right, privilege, covenant or condition in the future.
