

best interest of the Trustor.

FIFTH: Upon the death of the Trustor, the Trustees shall divide the trust property into ~~three (3)~~ <sup>TWO (2)</sup> equal parts to be held in trust by the Trustees for the benefit of the following named individuals in the amounts ascribed to them, and in accordance with the terms of this agreement, to wit:

~~BRANDY BEHRENDSON~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~
PAULINE GENNELLE WILLIAMSON ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ One-Half
PEGGY JEAN SCRIBNER ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ One-Half

Each such part shall constitute and be administered by the Trustees as a separate Trust and the Trustees are directed to pay unto each of the aforesaid beneficiaries all of the net income from the respective separate trust corpus and said net income shall be paid unto the aforesaid beneficiaries per stirpes, during the lives of the above named beneficiaries and until twenty (20) years after the death of all of the children and grandchildren of the Trustor living at the time of the execution of this Trust. At such point in time the Trustees are directed to distribute the corpus of the separate Trusts and any accumulated income to the then living lineal descendants of the above named individuals. All income which the Trustees are directed to pay pursuant to the terms of this item shall be paid not less than quarterly.

Any payments or applications of income or principal to or for the benefit of a minor under any provision of this agreement may be made by the Trustees in any manner which they in their sole discretion believe will benefit such minor.

The Trustees shall not be obliged to see to the proper application of any payment or payments which are made as provided hereunder.

SIXTH: The Trustees shall not be required to make a physical division of the Trust property, except when necessary for the purposes of distribution, but may, in their sole discretion, keep the Trusts created hereunder in one or more consolidated funds. However, each of the Trusts created hereunder shall constitute a separate Trust and separate records shall be kept of each such Trust.
