

RMC Office for Greenville County in Deed Book 915 at page 560.

This property is listed in Block Book as 277-P8-1-154.4 & 154.5.

2. The parties agree that the custody and control of the two older children who are ages eighteen and nineteen shall be left in the discretion of said children who are, in the opinion of the parties to this agreement, old enough to make such decisions.
3. The wife shall have full custody and control of the youngest child, Ann, age eleven, since it is the feeling of the parties that a girl of this age should be with her mother insofar as custody and control are concerned.
4. The husband or wife who does not have custody of the respective three children shall have liberal visitation rights with such children in the custody of the other party. The party to this agreement who does not have custody shall have the right to visit with such children in custody of the other party at any time upon giving one day's notice to the other party in order that proper arrangements can be made for such visitation and each party shall have the right to have all of the children together with them for one-half (1/2) of the holiday periods of Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Easter and during the period in the summer to coincide with the summer vacation of the husband or wife.
5. Neither party hereto shall do anything which may estrange the children from the other or hamper the natural development of the affection for both parties, and neither party shall make derogatory remarks about the other to or in the presence of the children.
6. The parties hereby agree to divide the personal property located in the homeplace in such a manner so as to have equal division of same with as much as possible providing adequate furnishings and furniture for the two respective households which the parties shall maintain separately. The parties have attached to this agreement a list of personal property which shall be property of the wife and a list of personal property which shall be the husbands, and said attachments are herein incorporated as a part of this agreement.
