(C) Notwithstanding anything hereinabove contained to the contrary, if, at any time while the Trust herein created or in force any financial emergency arises in the affairs of the primary beneficiary of such trust, or if the independent income of any of such beneficiary (exclusive of the income of any trust herein or otherwise created for her benefit by the Grantor) and all other means of support are insufficient for the support of such beneficiary, in the judgment of the Trustee, the Trustee shall pay over to such beneficiary out of the corpus of the Trust for her benefit, at any time and from time to time, such sum or sums as the Trustee shall deem necessary or appropriate in her discretion.

3. Payment to Minors. Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary, whenever pursuant to provisions of this Agreement, all or any part of the corpus of the Trust shall vest in absolute ownership in a minor, the Trustee is authorized and empowered in his uncontrolled discretion to hold the properties so vested in such minor, or any part thereof, in a separate fund for the benefit of such minor, notwithstanding that such property may consist of investments not authorized by law for trust funds, and to invest and reinvest the same, collect the income therefrom, and, during the minority of such minor, to apply so much of the corpus and so much of the income thereof to the support, education and maintenance of such minor as the Trustee may see fit, and to accumulate and invest and reinvest the balance of the income until such minor shall attain age twenty-one (21), and thereupon to pay over the corpus, together with any accumulated or undistributed income, to such minor, and if such minor shall die before attaining age twenty-one (21), the corpus, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, shall be paid over to the estate of such minor. The authority conferred upon the Trustee by this paragraph shall be construed as a power only, and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership
