Each of said equal parts shall be held and treated separately as hereinafter set forth; provided, however, that in lieu of physical division, the Trustee shall have the right whenever the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, deems it desirable for the purpose of facilitating the administration of these trusts, to credit any of such equal parts with an undivided interest in the whole, as constituted from time to time.

(5) Dispositive Provisions. The Trustee shall administer, invest and reinvest the trust estate upon the following terms and conditions and for the following uses and purposes:

(a) As to each of the four trusts created herein, the Trustee is authorized to pay to or for the benefit of the child who is the primary beneficiary of each trust, all of the net income of such trust, at any time and from time to time, in such amounts as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion shall determine, accumulating and adding to principal annually any amounts of income not so expended. As each child attains the age of twenty-one (21), all accumulated and undistributed income shall be paid to each child from his or her trust, and thereafter, all of the net income from such child's trust shall be paid to or for the benefit of such child in annual or more frequent installments for and during the term of such child's life.

(b) In addition, prior to attaining the age of twenty-one (21), the Trustee is authorized to pay to or for the benefit of the child who is the primary beneficiary of each trust, such amounts of principal of such trust, at any time and from time to time as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, shall determine. After attaining the age of twenty-one (21), Trustee is authorized to pay to or for the benefit of the child who is the primary beneficiary of each trust, such amounts of principal of such trust, at any time and from time to time as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, shall deem advisable or necessary for such child's health, support, maintenance and education.

(c) After each child attains the age of twenty-one (21), such child may demand and receive any portion of the principal of his or her trust at any time, and may terminate his or her trust, upon written notice to the Trustee. In the event of termination, the Trustee shall pay over to such child, absolutely, the remaining undistributed income and principal of such child's trust.
