william Henry Willimon died in June of 1947, leaving his will, dated June 15, 1940, which was duly proved and probated in the Probate Court for Greenville County, South Carolina. This will is contained in Apartment 531, File 13 in said Probate Court.

In Items II, III, and IV of his will, William Henry William Created a trust, naming as trustees his widow, Maude Pack Willimon, and his sons, Eugene Perritt Willimon, and Henry Pack Willimon, the survivors of them having full power to act.

The trust, in Item III of the will, was made terminable in the discretion of the trustees after the death of Maude Pack Willimon or after the testator's youngest child shall have attained twenty-five years, whichever is later.

Maude Pack Willimon died in 1953 and all of the testator's children have attained twenty-five years. The surviving trustees, Eugene Perritt Willimon and Henry Pack Willimon, have determined that it is advisable to dissolve the trust.

Ann Walker Willimon White formerly Ann Walker Willimon, died in September, 1975, leaving children, all of whom are named as grantees herein.

Robert Charles Willimon has attained the age of fifty years and his children, all of whom are of age, are therefore made grantees herein (See Item IV of said will).
