However, no revocation of the trust with respect to any policy, whether pursuant to the provisions of the preceding sentence or otherwise, shall be effective unless the surrender or change in beneficiary of the policy is accepted by the insurance company. Upon the death of the insured under any policy held by or known to, and payable to, the Trustee, or upon the occurrence of some event prior to the death of the Settlor that matures any such policy, the Trustee, in its discretion, either may collect the net proceeds and hold them as part of the principal of the Trust Estate, or may exercise any optional method of settlement available to it, and the Trustee shall deliver any policies on the insured's life held by it and payable to any other beneficiaries as those beneficiaries may direct. Payment to, and the receipt of, the Trustee shall be a full discharge of the liability of any insurance company, which need not take notice of this agreement or see to the application of any payment. The Trustee need not engage in litigation to enforce payment of any policy without indemnification satisfactory to it for any resulting expenses.
