VOW OF POVERTY

7282MVA 25M

1000 AS

With regard to The Coinage Act of 1792 and all later Coinage Acts, including the Bland Allison Act, the Constitution of the United States in all of its law regarding money, etc.

Being unable to possess or own any Legal Tender as defined by law, and having none in my pockets or other possessions at the time of the signing of this Oath of Poverty, I do hereby declare to one and all the public at large, I am a pauper.

I do hereby declare for religious and principles of my beliefs that I should save my Soul first, rather than worry about the material possessions of this earth.

There is no Legal Tender owed to me now, I do not expect to inherit any legal tender in the future.

I AM A PAUPER.
