

(6) The Second Party, in consideration of the value of the marriage, all real, personal, title and interest, in and to any and all property, real, personal or mixed, owned by the First Party, or which he may hereafter acquire, and hereby authorizes this instrument to be recorded in the records of Greenville County, South Carolina, and that the same will not attach to any property of the First Party. Should some attorney require revocation of power at a later date, the Second Party agrees to execute and file a revocation of power free and voluntarily and make no consideration, trust or fear from the First Party, and the Second Party does hereby renounce with the same effect as if stated prior to said marriage.

(7) The First Party hereby waives any right, title and interest in and to any property that the Second Party may own or hereafter acquire in consideration of said marriage.

(8) It is recognized between the parties that the First Party has a child who is sui juris and that the Second Party has a minor child and that under order of court, the Father of the child of the Second Party is required to support said child and the First Party assumes no responsibility whatsoever unless he chooses to do so. In other words, the Second Party shall not expect to receive any support or maintenance of any kind from the First Party.

0992

4328 RV-2