

stirpes amount; or if there be no such issue living, then such portion shall be distributed to those persons who are at the death of said spouse the heirs and distributees at law of such child of the Grantor who predeceased said spouse.

(C) As to any issue of the Grantor, other than a child of the Grantor, who receives under this Trust Agreement a portion or full share of the income of this Trust, such income shall continue to be payable until such issue respectively attain the age of 21; and at such times the Trustees shall distribute in kind or value to such income beneficiary a portion or share of the principal in the same proportion to the total principal as the proportion such portion or share of the income was to the total income. If such income beneficiary should not survive to the age of 21, the portion or share of said principal which said beneficiary would have received at age 21, shall upon his death be distributed to his heirs and distributees at law.

(D) If this Trust shall not have completely terminated by the beginning of the 21st year after the death of all of the descendants of the Grantor now living, then this Trust shall terminate at such time and any unvested interests in remainder shall vest at such time, in like manner as though the event prerequisite for such vesting (as provided in sections (A), (B), and (C) of this SECOND paragraph) had occurred.

THIRD: The foregoing provisions of this Trust Instrument shall be subject to the limitation that the Trustees shall make no distribution of principal or income of this Trust to J. Donald King or his spouse and/or his issue until and unless J. Donald King, or someone on his account, shall have first paid into this Trust the sum of Twenty-four thousand three hundred ($24,300.00) Dollars or property of such value; except that all distributions which J. Donald King or his spouse and/or his issue would have received in the absence of this limitation shall be credited as
