

but Trustee shall not be required to verify the receipt of any such goods or services and, in no case, shall he be required to see to the application of any such funds so paid. Any such principal so retained by Trustee and any income therefrom, which is not expended or applied under the provisions of this item of the trust, shall be paid over to such minor beneficiary upon attaining majority, or, if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her estate.

The authority conferred upon Trustee by this article shall be construed as a power only, and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership of such property by such minor or to prevent the absolute vesting thereof in such minor. With respect to any such property which shall vest in absolute ownership in a minor or minors, but which shall be held by Trustee as authorized by this item, Trustee shall have all the powers conferred by the provisions of this trust, including, without limitation, the power to retain, invest and reinvest without being limited to investments authorized by law for trust funds, except as hereinabove provided in the paragraph entitled "Limitation and Restriction on Sale or Disposition of Stock by Trustee."

IRREVOCABLE

The Donor hereby declares that she has been advised by counsel as to the legal effect of the execution and acceptance of this agreement, including all rights of revocation or alteration hereof possessed by Donor or given to the Donor by any statute of the State of South Carolina or any decision of its courts or otherwise; that the Donor is fully aware of said legal effect, of said rights and of the character and amount of the property hereby transferred and conveyed; and that the Donor has given consideration to the question whether this agreement or the trusts or any vested or contingent beneficial interests hereby created shall be revocable or irrevocable. The Donor hereby declares that this agreement and all trusts and beneficial interests, whether vested or contingent hereby created shall be irrevocable and that the Donor shall hereafter stand without power at any time to revoke, change, or annul any of the provisions herein contained or any of the vested or contingent beneficial interests affected
