ANTE-NUPTIAL AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this ___ day of June, 1978, by and between LOYD G. BOYER, hereinafter called "First Party" and JERI J. LEDGERWOOD, hereinafter called "Second Party".

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, the parties are divorced and are residents of the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina, and they have indicated a desire to marry;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter expressed, the parties do mutually agree as follows:

(1) That in the event of the marriage of the parties, the First Party agrees to maintain and support the Second Party as he deems advisable. That is to say, that he will, during the marriage, properly support the Second Party.

(2) In consideration of said marriage and the aforesaid consideration, in the event of a separation or divorce between the parties, the Second Party hereby specifically agrees that she shall knowingly waive any right that she may have, legal or equitable, in and to any property of the First Party and specifically waives any alimony, support or maintenance of any kind whatsoever, except hereinafter provided.

(3) In the event of separation or divorce after the first five (5) years of marriage, but before the twelfth (12th) anniversary of said marriage, the First Party agrees to pay and the Second Party agrees to accept the sum of One Thousand and No/100 ($1,000.00) Dollars per month beginning on the first day of the month following separation or divorce, by order of Court, for a period of two years so that she might adjust back to society and she hereby specifically waives any other rights that she may have for support in the manner to which she may have become accustomed. In the event of separation or divorce after twelve (12) years of marriage, then there is no fixed amount of support or alimony to be paid by the First Party unto the Second Party, but this shall be left to be determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction if an agreement cannot be made by the parties, with the exception that any conveyances of real property by the First Party to the Second Party during the marriage shall not be a gift, but shall be a discharge of the First Party's obligation to support the Second Party or a payment of alimony from the First Party to the Second Party.
