

support and alimony payments as outlined above shall be made payable to the Greenville County Family Court with the first payment due on Friday, October 20, with a like payment each and every Friday thereafter.

As to the former marital home of the parties, I find that the Plaintiff is entitled to live in the home with the two minor children until the younger child reaches the age of majority. Moreover, I find that the equity in the house shall be frozen effective January 1, 1978 which is the day after the Defendant was served with the Complaint in this action and that the wife shall be credited for all mortgage payments she has made from January 1, 1978 forward in any ultimate or eventual settlement of equity by the parties in the home. I find that the Plaintiff shall be entitled to use of all household furnishings and furniture presently in said house during the period of minority of the two minor children. I further find that the Defendant ought to be restrained and enjoined from selling, transferring, conveying, encumbering, or any manner affecting his property rights in his one-half interest in the former marital residence unless by agreement of both parties or by order of this Court.

I find that the Defendant shall be entitled to reasonable visitation with the two minor children.

I further find that the Plaintiff is entitled to a $350 permanent attorney's fee, and that the Defendant, Edward S. Coster must comply with all prior orders of this Court, and satisfy all back child support within a reasonable period of time.

I find that both parties ought to be mutually restrained and enjoined from harrassing, interfering with, molesting, telephoning, communicating with, or threatening the other, and further that the Defendant is restrained and enjoined from going on or about the premises of the former marital abode except for the purposes of visitation as outlined above.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the Defendant be granted a divorce a vinculo

W. T. S. Jr.
#2

4328 RV-2