

matrimonii from Defendant on the grounds of habitual drunkenness. That Plaintiff is to have custody of the two minor children and the use of all of the former marital home and all furnishings and furniture therein until the younger child shall reach the age of majority.

2. The equity of the parties in the former marital abode is hereby frozen effective January 1, 1978 and the wife shall receive credit for all mortgage payments made by her since January 1, 1978 in any subsequent or eventual settlement of the equity in the home by the parties.

3. The Defendant shall pay a sum of $50 per week as support for the two minor children ($25 per child per week) and the additional sum of $30 per week as alimony. Said child support and alimony payments shall be made payable to the Greenville County Family Court with the first payment due Friday, October 20, 1978 with a like payment on each and every successive Friday.

4. That the Defendant shall pay to the firm of Love, Thornton, Arnold & Thomason the sum of $350 permanent attorney's fee for the Plaintiff. Said payment shall be made payable directly to Love, Thornton, Arnold & Thomason within a reasonable time of this Order.

5. That both parties are hereby mutually restrained and enjoined from harassing, interfering with, molesting, telephoning, communicating with, or threatening the other and further that Defendant is restrained and enjoined from going onto the premises of the former marital abode except for visitation purposes as outlined below.

6. The Defendant shall have reasonable visitation privileges with the two children.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

TO: EDWARD S. COSTER:

7. You are hereby restrained and enjoined from selling, transferring, conveying, encumbering, or in any manner affecting your property rights in your one-half interest in the former marital residence unless by agreement of the parties hereto

W.T.S. Jr.
#3