provided by statute, but does expressly reserve the right to a trial, de nova, before a jury for the purpose of determining damages, if any, due to the Appellant for this taking and further appears that the parties hereto have agreed that for all purposes, the date of the taking of the property described shall be the date of this Order.

Now, on motion of Leo H. Hill, of the firm of Hill, Wyatt & Bannister, Attorneys for the Respondent, consented to by the Appellant herein,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Respondent be and hereby is awarded title in fee simple to that portion of the Appellant's land described in the attached Exhibit "A" and also awarded the right of way over other portions of the Appellant's property as shown on Exhibit "A"; the extent to which rights of way may be exercised as set forth in Exhibit "B" setting forth the use and purpose of the rights of way and the rights of the landowner.

#2
H.

The Appellant herein shall have the right to a trial de nova for the purpose of determining compensation and damage, if any, due to the Appellant by reason of the taking of this right of way.

That upon the signing of this Order, Appellant herein will have perfected its appeal and will be relieved of the obligation to file any further notice of intent to appeal, and this case shall be docketed in the Office of the Clerk of Court for Greenville County and placed on the trial calendar.

AND, IT IS SO ORDERED.
