

In case of such foreclosure aforesaid, the unit co-owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the Unit, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure shall be entitled to the appointment of a Receiver to collect same from the unit co-owner and/or occupant.

Where the mortgagee of an institutional first mortgage of record, or other purchaser of a Unit obtains title to a unit as a result of foreclosure of the institutional first mortgage, or when an institutional first mortgagee of record accepts a Deed to said Unit in lieu of foreclosure, or other purchaser obtains title to a Unit as a result of foreclosure of the aforesaid Lessor's lien, such acquirer of title, his grantees, heirs, successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of common expenses or assessments by the Association pertaining to such Unit, or chargeable to the former unit co-owner of such Unit, which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of foreclosure or the acceptance of such Deed in lieu of foreclosure. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectable from all of the unit co-owners in the property, excluding such acquirer, his grantees, heirs, successors and assigns.

Any person who acquires an interest in a unit, except through foreclosure of an institutional first mortgage of record, or Deed in lieu thereof, as specifically provided hereinabove, including without limitation, persons acquiring title by operation of law, including purchasers at judicial sales, shall not be entitled to occupancy of the unit or enjoyment of the General Common Elements until such time as all unpaid assessments due and owing by the former unit co-owner have been paid.

COMMON SURPLUS

"COMMON SURPLUS", meaning all funds and other assets of the Association (including excess of receipts of Association, including but not limited to assessments, rents, profits and revenues from whatever source whatsoever, over amount of the common expense), shall be owned by the owners of all Units in the same proportion that the undivided interest in General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements appurtenant to each co-owner's Unit bears to the total of all undivided interests in General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements appurtenant to all Units; provided, however, that said common surplus shall be held by the Association in the manner, and subject to the terms, provisions and conditions hereof imposing certain limitations and restrictions upon the use and distribution of said common surplus. Except for distribution of any insurance indemnity herein provided, or termination of Dover Townhouses Horizontal Property Regime, any distribution of common surplus which may be made from time to time shall be made to the then co-owners of Units
