

Section 13. Fidelity Bonds. The Board may require that any and all officers and employees of the Regime handling or responsible for Regime funds shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the Regime.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS

Section 1. Designation. The principal officers of the Regime shall be a President, a Vice President, and a Secretary-Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by and from the Board. The Board may appoint an assistant treasurer, and an assistant secretary, and such other officers as in their judgment may be necessary.

Section 2. Election of Officers. The officers of the Regime shall be elected annually by the Board at the organization meeting of each new Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board.

Section 3. Removal of Officers. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his successor elected at any regular meeting of the Board, or at any special meeting of the Board called for such purpose.

Section 4. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Regime. He shall preside at all Council meetings of the Regime and of the Board. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of president of a Regime, including but not limited to the power to appoint committees from among the co-owners from time to time as he may in his discretion decide are appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Regime.

Section 5. Vice President. The Vice President shall take the place of the President and perform his duties whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. If neither the President nor the Vice President is able to act, the Board shall appoint some other member of the Board to do so on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed upon him by the Board.

Section 6. Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board and the minutes of all meetings of the Council; he shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board may direct; and he shall have responsibility for Regime funds and securities and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate accounts of all receipt and disbursements in books belonging to the Regime. He shall be responsible for the deposit of all moneys and other valuable effects in the name, and to the credit, of the Regime in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Board. He shall, in general, perform all of the duties incident to the offices of Secretary and Treasurer.

ARTICLE VI.

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. By-Laws. These By-Laws may be amended by the Council in a duly constituted meeting held for such purposes, and no amendment shall take effect unless approved by co-owners representing at least two-thirds of the total value of the Property as shown in the Master Deed.
