

V. RESTRICTIONS. For the purpose of insuring maximum enjoyment of the condominium property by all of the residences, the use of the property of the condominium shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

- A. The condominium property shall be used only for single family residences, and for furnishing of services and facilities herein provided for the enjoyment of such residences. Each of the residences for which provision is made by the condominium documents shall be occupied only by a single family as its residence and for no other purpose. Except, however, the Association may allow two non-related persons to occupy a unit.
- B. No business shall be allowed upon the condominium property, nor any use or practice which is the source of annoyance to residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the property by its residents. All parts of the property shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition and no rubbish, refuse or garbage allowed to accumulate nor any fire hazard allowed to exist.
- C. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the condominium property, nor any part thereof; and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed.
- D. Entire residences may be rented (the terms rent shall include lease or sublease). However, with the exception of a lender in possession of a condominium unit following a default in a first mortgage, a foreclosure proceeding or any deed or other arrangement in lieu of foreclosure, no unit owner shall be permitted to lease his unit for transient or hotel purposes. No unit owner may lease less than the entire unit. Any lease agreement shall be required to provided that the terms of the lease shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Declaration and the By-Laws and that any failure by the lessee to comply with the terms of such documents shall be a default under the lease. All leases shall be required to be in writing. Other than the foregoing, there is no restriction on the right of any unit owner to lease his unit.
- E. Reasonable regulations concerning the use and occupancy of the condominium (including residences and common areas) and reasonable regulations concerning the prohibition of or limitations on pets may be made and amended from time to time by the Board of Directors. Copies of such regulations and amendments thereto
