NOTICES

26. Whenever under the provisions of the statutes or of the Constitution or of these by-laws, notice is required to be given to any director or member, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but such notice may be given in writing, by mail, depositing the same in a post office or letter box, in a post-paid sealed wrapper, addressed to such director or member at such address as appears on the books of the Association, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be thus mailed.

27. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the statutes or of the Constitution, or of these by-laws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

28. The officers of the Association shall be chosen by the directors each year at the board's first meeting after the annual meeting of members and shall be a president, a vice president, a secretary-treasurer. The board of directors may also choose additional vice presidents, and one or more assistant secretaries, and assistant treasurers. Members of the board of directors are also eligible to serve as officers of the corporation, but no officer, excepting the president need be a member of the board.

29. The board may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the board.

30. The officers of the Association shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify in their stead. Any officer elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board of directors. If the office of any officer becomes vacant for any reasons, the vacancy shall be filled
