

And I, the said Allan C. Boas, do hereby ratify and confirm all acts of my attorneys, and do declare that all acts and deeds performed under this instrument shall have the same full force and effect as if performed and signed by me in person, and this instrument shall be effective until revoked in writing or shall cease by operation of law.

Any other provision to the contrary notwithstanding, the signature of either of my aforementioned attorneys in fact shall be sufficient for all purposes hereunder and shall be considered for all intents and purposes, with the same validity as the signatures of both attorneys in fact, so that the signatures of both attorneys in fact shall not be required.

This Power of Attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing his own estate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 19th day of July, 1979.
