

any director or member, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but such notice may be given in writing, by mail, depositing the same in a post office or letter box, in a post-paid sealed wrapper, addressed to such director or member at such address as appears on the books of the corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be thus mailed.

28. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the statutes or of the Articles of Incorporation, or of these by-laws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

OFFICERS

29. The officers of the corporation shall be chosen by the directors and shall be a president, a vice president, a secretary-treasurer. The board of directors may also choose additional vice presidents, and one or more assistant secretaries, and assistant treasurers. Members of the board of directors are also eligible to serve as officers of the corporation.

30. The board of directors at its first meeting after each annual meeting of members shall choose a president, and one or more vice presidents, a secretary-treasurer, none of whom, excepting the president, need be a member of the board.

31. The board may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the board.

32. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify in their stead. Any officer elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board of directors. If the office of any officer becomes vacant for any reasons, the vacancy shall be filled by the board of directors. The initial officers and the
