

3. Damages are hereby declared not be adequate compensation for any breach of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes or easements of this Declaration, but such breach and the continuance thereof may be enjoined, abated and remedied by appropriate proceedings by the Declarants or an owner of any lot in said property.

X.

VIOLATION OF COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS
RESERVATIONS, SERVITUDES AND EASEMENTS

A breach or violation of any of the covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements shall give to the Declarants the right to immediate entry upon the property upon which such violation exists and summarily to abate and remove at the expense of the owner thereof, any erection, structure, building, thing or condition that may be or exist thereon contrary to this Declaration and to the true intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Declarants shall not thereby be deemed guilty of any manner of trespass for such entry, abatement or removal, nor shall the Declarants be liable for any damages occasioned thereby. The result of every act or of omission or commission or the violation of any covenant, restriction, reservation, servitude and easement in whole or in part, is hereby declared to be and to constitute a nuisance and every remedy at law or equity against a nuisance, either public or private, shall be applicable against any such owner of any lot and may be prohibited and enjoined by injunction. Such remedy shall be deemed cumulative and not exclusive where an action, suit or other judicial proceeding is instituted or brought for the enforcement of these covenants, restrictions, reservations, servitudes and easements. The losing party in such litigation shall pay all expense, including a reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party in such legal proceeding.

XI.

RIGHT TO ENFORCE

The provisions contained in this Declaration shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Declarants or by the owner or owners of any portion of said property, their and each of their legal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, and failure by the Declarants or by the owner or owners of any portion of said property or their legal representatives, heirs, successors
