

11. To prepare, execute and file income or other tax returns, whether Federal or State, and other Governmental reports, applications, requests and documents, whether individual or joint;

12. To act as my attorney-in-fact or proxy in respect to any policy of insurance on my life and in that capacity to exercise any right, privilege or option which I may have thereunder or pertaining thereto, excluding however, the right to change the beneficiary, the right to change the method of payment of the insurance proceeds, and the right to make cash surrender of the policy as distinguished from a surrender of the policy for loan, conversion, or other purposes as provided therein;

13. To have access to any safe deposit box or boxes that may be now or hereafter rented by me or for me, or standing in my name; to withdraw or remove any of the contents thereof and to make deposits in and otherwise use or surrender such box or boxes, and to rent any safe deposit box or boxes in my name or in my said attorneys' name or in both our names jointly, either with or without right of survivorship.

I hereby direct that either of my said attorneys may act separately with full power and authority hereunder and need not act jointly with the other attorney-in-fact.

And I hereby declare that any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by either of my said attorneys shall be binding upon myself and my heirs, legal and personal representatives and assigns.

This general power of attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing her own estate.

GIVING AND GRANTING unto my said attorneys full power and authority to do and perform all and every act, deed, matter and thing whatsoever in and about my estate, property and affairs as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I might or could do in my own proper person if personally present, the herein specially enumerated powers being in aid and exemplification
