

FOURTH: (A) The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

(1) To provide a service agency for individual and cooperative activities to the end that the area served, may better meet the human needs and aspirations of men, women and children.

(2) To adopt such methods, procedures and policies as may be necessary to accomplish the purpose above set forth consistent with sound policies and standards; and generally to foster cooperative effort and harmonious relationships among community groups of different cultural, economic, religious and social characteristics.

(3) To advise and acquaint the public of the quality and quantity, delivery and accessibility of services of charitable non-profit, public health and welfare organizations, local, regional and national, the method of financing, the use of funds, personnel, and such other information that will assist the public, and encourage and assist in the rendering to the public of maximum services.

(4) This agency is organized exclusively for and will be operated exclusively for, the purposes stated in FOURTH (A)(1) as stated herein, and for purposes germane, or similar thereto.

(B) The members of this agency shall be those Trustees who are in office at any given time.

(C) The manner of election or appointment of the corporation's Board of Trustees shall be provided in the By-Laws.

(Continued on next page)