

(c) A Standby Attorney is subject to removal as provided in Article II, paragraph D. hereof.

ARTICLE I

Empowerment of Attorney

Attorney is authorized in Attorney's absolute discretion from time to time and at any time with respect to my property, real or personal, at any time owned or held by me and without authorization of any court and in addition to any other rights, powers or authority granted by any other provision of this power of attorney or by statute or general rules of law (and regardless of whether I am mentally incompetent or physically or mentally disabled or incapable of managing my property and income), with full power of substitution, as follows:

A. General Powers

1. To do and perform all and every act, deed, matter, and thing whatsoever in and about my estate, property and affairs as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I might or could do in my own proper person, if personally present, the specifically enumerated powers described below being in aid and exemplification of the full, complete and general power herein granted and not in limitation or definition thereof;
2. Ask, demand, sue for, collect and receive all sums of money, dividends, interest, payments on account of debts and legacies and all property now due or which may hereafter become due and owing to me, and give good and valid receipts and discharges for such payments;
3. Sell, assign and transfer stocks and bonds and securities of all kinds in my name and for my account and at such prices as shall seem good to him;
4. Sign, execute, acknowledge and deliver in my name all transfers and assignments of securities;
