

DECLARATION OF PETITION FOR INCORPORATION

ATTACHMENT A

The purpose of this corporation shall be to glorify God by assisting local churches and missionary agencies in the God-given task of evangelism and Bible teaching.

This ministry shall be carried on throughout the United States of America and other countries through evangelistic crusades and Bible conferences as well as extended outreaches through radio and television.

It shall also be the purpose of the corporation to aid in the establishment, maintenance, and maturity of believers in the Christian Faith, to assist in the building, and maintenance of churches, schools, hospitals, chapels, orphanages, and other religious, educational or benevolent institutions as may be necessary or proper to the work of missionary bodies in the United States or in any foreign country, and the maintenance of all missionary undertakings.

To spread the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ throughout the United States of America and other countries through the printed page, through the support of missionaries throughout the world, and through any other methods.

To devise, provide and pursue ways and means and to receive and acquire funds and money for the distribution of Bibles, Testaments, tracts and other portions of the Holy Scripture, and prepare and manufacture the same, and to distribute books containing Gospel songs, readings, and teachings in any form whatever, and to issue said Christian literature, periodicals, pamphlets and lesson leaves as may be helpful and which will serve to carry out the purpose herein.

To support teachers and preachers to go everywhere preaching and teaching the Word of God, seeking to lead children, teenagers, and adults, to a personal acceptance of Jesus Christ as Saviour.

To solicit, collect, receive, accumulate, administer and disburse funds in such a manner as will, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, most effectively achieve the goals of this corporation. To make contributions to any organization described in Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, with the exception of organizations testing for public safety, to engage in any and all lawful activities incidental to the foregoing purposes, except as restricted herein.

To do any or all of the things hereinabove set forth, and all things usual, necessary, or proper in furtherance of or incidental to said purposes, including the borrowing of funds and otherwise engaging in credit transactions.

The corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor shall it directly or indirectly engage in any activity that would

(1) prevent it from obtaining exemption from Federal Income taxation as a corporation described in Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or

(2) cause it to lose such exempt status.

The corporation shall not be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in, or intervene in, (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office; nor shall the corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable federal, state or local laws.

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Charter, this corporation shall only conduct or carry on activities permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations and by any organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of such Code and Regulations so long as they may be in effect.

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the assets of the corporation shall be transferred only to such organizations which the trustees of the corporation determine will carry out the fundamental purposes set out in this charter, which are also qualified and recognized as tax-exempt under Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code, and its Regulations.
