

of Assistant Managing Partner, and then to Managing Partner, shall be in the following order in the calendar years following the aforesaid initial year:

A. E. Spearman, Ira Barton, Boyce Owen, D. R. Cannon and Dennis Cannon.

In the event any partner sells his Partnership Unit(s), the purchaser of that Unit, if it shall be a person other than a present partner, shall take the retiring partner's place in said succession after he has been a partner for at least six months. In the event such Unit is purchased by an existing partner, or by the Partnership itself, the retiring partner's name shall simply be deleted from the rotation, and the rotation shall otherwise operate as set forth above.

7. Use of Partnership Property. Ownership of a Partnership Unit shall entitle the partner to the exclusive use of the Partnership property during 8 weeks of each "Partnership year". For purposes of this paragraph, the first "Partnership year" shall begin as soon as the unit is declared ready to occupy by the Managing Partner. Each partnership year shall have a duration of 48 weeks. The exact weeks within each Partnership year to be allocated to each Partnership Unit has been determined by a schedule previously agreed upon by all the the parties hereto. All partners agree to be bound by that schedule through the duration of the Partnership, subject to any special agreements or exchanges made among the partners. Each partner shall have the complete right to utilize the Partnership property during any week allocated to his Partnership Unit(s), or to allow other individuals to use the property in his stead during any week allocated to him, upon such terms and conditions (including rental) as he may determine. Each partner shall be responsible for the proper care and appropriate cleaning of the Partnership property during any week allocated to him, and shall be responsible for any damage purposely or accidentally inflicted upon Partnership property during any week attributed to him, whether such damage was caused by him or by other persons using the property with his permission. In no event will any partner ever rent the Partnership property, or allow use of the Partnership property, by any individual who is not a personal acquaintance of a partner. No partner will ever rent the property through a real estate or rental agency. For purposes of this paragraph, the successive weeks of use of the property shall begin and end a 4:00 p.m. on Sunday afternoons. By that time, the partner using the property during the previous week shall have completed the cleaning of the property, preparing it for use and occupancy for the next partner in line. Each partner agrees to abide by any rules and regulations
