

Condemnation 15. If the whole of the leased premises, or such portion thereof as will make premises unuseable for the purposes herein leased, be condemned by any legally constituted authority for any public use or purpose, then in either of said events the term hereby granted shall cease from the time when possession thereof is taken by public authorities, and rental shall be accounted for as between Landlord and Tenant as of that date. Such termination, however, shall be without prejudice to the rights of either Landlord or Tenant to recover compensation and damage caused by condemnation from the condemnor. It is further understood and agreed that neither the Tenant nor Landlord shall have any rights in any award made to the other by any condemnation authority.

Assignment 16. Tenant may sublease portions of the leased premises to others provided such sublessee's operation is a part of the general operation of Tenant and under the supervision and control of Tenant, and provided such operation is within the purposes for which said premises shall be used. Except as provided in preceding sentence, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord endorsed hereon, assign this lease or any interest hereunder, or sublet premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of premises by any party other than Tenant. Consent to any assignment or sublease shall not destroy this provision, and all later assignments or subleases shall be made likewise only on the prior written consent of Landlord. Consent of Landlord, however, shall not be unreasonably withheld. Assignee of Tenant, at option of Landlord, shall become directly liable to Landlord for all
