

Declaration. Some of the provisions are summarized as follows:

A. The Association will determine whether or not any part of the property in the condominium which is damaged or destroyed shall be repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt, in the following manner:

1. Damage to common areas and facilities will be repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt unless unanimously agreed upon by the co-owners.

2. Minor damages to residences which does not render any residence untenable will be repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt upon written application of any residence owner.

3. Damage which renders more than two-thirds (2/3) of the property untenable will not be repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt unless otherwise unanimously agreed by the co-owners in which case the provisions of the Act shall control.

4. All such repairs, reconstruction or rebuilding will be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for each building prior to such damage.

B. The Manager shall obtain estimates of the cost to repair, reconstruct or rebuild the property damaged as soon as practicable after damage or destruction of any of the condominium property. The cost of such repair, reconstruction or rebuilding in excess of insurance proceeds, will be assessed, with respect to damaged common areas and facilities, pro rata among the residence owners in accordance with their percentage interests, and will be assessed against the individual residence owners of damaged residences with respect to damaged residences.

C. Proceeds of insurance and sums paid upon assessments by reason of damage to the property will
