

County, South Carolina. The certificate of amendment may be in the form of Exhibit "E" or in other appropriate form.

(d) The Association may not amend this Declaration so as to change the ownership interests of the members, the boundaries of any residence, the undivided interest in the common elements appertaining to the residence or the liability for common expenses appertaining thereto, the fundamental purposes to which any residence or the common elements are restricted, or the weight of the votes of the members unless such amendment shall have been authorized in writing by all members of the Association.

B. The By-laws of the Association shall be amended as provided therein.

XVI. TERMINATION. The condominium shall be terminated, and the property removed from the provisions of the Act, in the following manner:

A. The termination of the condominium may be affected by unanimous agreement of the co-owners, with the approval of the eligible holders of first mortgages on residences to which at least 75% of the votes of the residences subject to a mortgage appertain, provided to be an eligible holder, a first mortgagee must request notice as provided in Paragraph XXI, which agreement shall be evidenced by an instrument or instruments executed in the manner required for conveyances of land. The termination shall become effective when such agreement has been recorded in the RMC Office for Greenville County, South Carolina.

B. In the event it is determined in the manner provided in this Declaration that the condominium property shall not be reconstructed after casualty, the condominium will be terminated and the condominium documents revoked, unless the Act shall have been amended to allow continuation of the condominium in such circumstances and corresponding amendments to this Declaration shall have been effected. The determination not to reconstruct after casualty resulting in termination of the condominium shall be evidenced by a certificate of any two of the officers of the Association certifying as to facts effecting the termination, which certificate shall become effective upon being recorded in the RMC Office for Greenville County, South Carolina.

C. After termination of the condominium, the rights of the co-owners and their respective mortgagees and lienees shall be determined in the manner provided in paragraph E of Appendix Two of this Declaration.

XVII. COVENANTS RUNNING WITH THE LAND AND ENCROACHMENTS. All provisions of the condominium documents shall be construed to be covenants running with the land, and with every part thereof and interest therein, including but not limited to every residence and the appurtenances thereto; and every co-owner and claimant of the land or any part thereof or interest therein, and his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns shall be bound by all of the provisions of the condominium documents.
