To the debtor, his creditors, and other parties in interest:

on April 9, 1981 at 10:40 o'clock a. m.

2. The debtor shall appear in person (or, if the debtor is a partnership, by a general partner, or, if the debtor is a corporation, by its president or chief executive officer) at that time and place for the purpose of being examined.

3. [If the debtor is an individual] is fixed as the last day for the filing of objections to the discharge of the debtor.

At the meeting the creditors may file their claims, elect a trustee as permitted by law, [if appropriate] designate a person to supervise the meeting, elect a committee of creditors, examine the debtor, and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

As a result of the filing of the petition, certain acts and proceedings against the debtor and his property are stayed as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 362(a).

[If the debtor is an individual] If no objection to the discharge of the debtor is filed on or before the last day fixed therefor as stated in subparagraph 3 above, the debtor will be granted his discharge. If no complaint to determine the dischargeability of a debt under clause (2), (4), or (6) of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a) is filed within the time fixed therefor as stated in subparagraph 4 above, the debt may be discharged.

In order to have his claim allowed so that he may share in any distribution from the estate, a creditor must file a claim, whether or not he is included in the list of creditors filed by the debtor. Claims which are not filed within 6 months after the above date set for the meeting of creditors will not be allowed, except as otherwise provided by law.
