

for depreciation and/or obsolescence and to allocate such depreciation and/or obsolescence against income and/or corpus as he in his sole discretion shall deem advisable;

29. Generally, to exercise all such rights and powers and to do all such acts and to enter into all such agreements as persons owning similar property in their own right might lawfully exercise, do or enter into;

30. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, no powers enumerated herein or accorded to trustees generally pursuant to law shall be construed to enable the Grantor, or the Trustee, or any other person to purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the principal or income of the Trust for less than an adequate or full consideration in money or money's worth, or to enable the Grantor or the Trustee to borrow the principal or income of the Trust, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest or security. No person other than the Trustee shall have or exercise the power to direct the voting of any stock or other securities of the Trust, to control the investment of the Trust either by directing investment or reinvestment or by vetoing proposed investment or reinvestments, or to reacquire or exchange any property of the Trust by substituting other property of an equivalent value. The powers herein granted to the Trustee shall, except as otherwise expressly provided, in no wise be limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other power specified herein, and each such power shall be construed as an independent power, and the enumeration of specific powers shall be deemed to be supplementary to and not exclusive of the general powers of Trustees pursuant to law, and shall include all powers necessary to carry the same into effect.
