

IX. The income and principal of this Trust shall be distributed eventually to and/or applied for the benefit of the beneficiaries hereof, insofar as practicable, so as to result in equal distributions to or for the benefit of Grantor's children, natural and adopted, and to the natural and/or adopted children of Grantor's children, per stirpes, however, the Trustee shall have absolute authority and discretion to determine the time(s) for any such distribution(s), including the termination of this trust by its own terms, and to vary from such equal division according to the needs of any of the beneficiaries hereunder. Needs shall be determined by Trustee in his sole and absolute discretion, and shall include, but not be limited to, medical expenses, comfortable maintenance and support, education of any reasonable type and level, travel and any other activity deemed by Trustee to be beneficial to the health and/or development of any beneficiary.

X. Whenever the Trustee shall determine to pay or apply any part of the net income or principal of the trust estate to or for the benefit of any beneficiary who is a minor or who, in the opinion of the Trustee, is for any reason unable to, or incapable of managing his or her own affairs (irrespective of whether legally so adjudged), the Trustee is authorized in his sole and absolute discretion to pay the whole or any part of such income or principal directly to or for the comfortable support and maintenance, education and/or medical care of such beneficiary, or to pay over the same or any part thereof to either parent or to the guardian, committee, or other legal representative, wherever appointed, of said beneficiary, or to the person having the care and custody of such beneficiary or with whom such beneficiary resides, or directly to such beneficiary, or by depositing the same in a banking or savings account or by purchasing stock or securities in the beneficiary's name as permitted by State law, or otherwise, as the Trustee may deem to be in the best interests of
