

connection therewith shall be constructed or located in a position different from that contemplated by said Plans, then the appropriate conveyances or easements made, granted, or reserved herein shall automatically be adjusted to conform with such actual location or position; PROVIDED no such adjustment shall become effective until it shall be depicted on a final set of "as-built" plans prepared to supplement or replace the Greenville Commons Plans by the architects named herein (or such successor as may subsequently be approved by City and Camel). When such final set of plans has been completed, City and Camel will enter into and execute a supplement to this Warranty Deed and Easement Agreement which will refer to and incorporate said final plans, and confirm that the conveyances made and easements granted herein shall be amended as necessary to conform to the final plans. Such supplement shall be recorded in the R.M.C. Office of Greenville County, South Carolina.

WITNESS the hand and seal of City and Camel this 13th day of AUGUST, 1980.
