

substitute or substituted, shall be fully as if done by virtue of this power of attorney and the rights and powers herein granted.

8. This instrument is to be construed and interpreted as a general power of attorney. The enumeration of specific items, rights, acts, or powers herein is not intended to, nor does it limit or restrict and is not intended to be or interpreted as limiting or restricting the general powers herein granted to said attorney in fact; in this regard, the attorney in fact appointed by this instrument has full authority to oversee my medical care and well-being and I do hereby grant him the authority to seek proper and competent legal and medical care and treatment for me as he, in his sole discretion, may deem necessary, and to, in his discretion, decide under what conditions I should remain living at my present residence and with whom, and I give my attorney in fact the authority and power to evict or remove any person or persons that he, in his sole discretion, should decide should not be residing with me.

9. The rights, powers, and authority of said attorney in fact herein granted shall commence and be in full force and effect on September 22, 1977, and such rights, powers, and authority shall remain in full force and effect thereafter until September 22, 1997, at which time this General Power of Attorney terminates and it shall terminate by written notice to my attorney in fact.

WITNESS my hand and seal on this 22nd day of September, 1977.
