

RES 10

all proceeds of such condemnation (including any conveyances in lieu of condemnation) shall be payable to the Lessee.

(b) Any condemnation of the leased premises or any portion thereof not specifically covered under subdivision (a) of this Article shall be subject to the following terms and provisions:

- (1) If the whole of the leased premises shall be taken for any public or any quasi-public use under any statute or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu of such taking by right of eminent domain, then this lease shall automatically terminate as of the date that title shall be taken. If any part of the leased premises shall be so taken which, in the opinion of the Lessee, would render the remainder thereof unusable for the purposes for which the leased premises were leased, then the Lessee shall have the right to terminate this lease on 30 days notice to the Lessors given within 90 days after the date of such taking. In the event that this lease shall terminate or be terminated, the rent shall be apportioned and paid to the date of such termination.
- (2) If any part of the leased premises shall be so taken and this lease shall not terminate or be terminated under the provisions of subparagraph (1) hereof, then the rent shall be abated according to the percentage of the land area so taken.
- (3) All compensation awarded or paid for land, buildings, improvements and damages upon any such taking (either total or partial) of the leased premises, after payment of all reasonable fees and expenses incurred by both parties in connection with the establishing and collection of such awards and subject to the rights of all mortgagees, shall be apportioned between the parties as follows:
  - i. The Lessors shall be entitled to receive and retain such portion of the award as shall represent compensation for the
