KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, Alfred C. Waldrop, of the above named County and State, have made, constituted and appointed, and by these presents, do make, constitute and appoint my son, George H. Waldrop, my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name, place and stead, to ask, demand, sue for, collect and receive all sums of money, dividends, interests, rents, payments on account of debts and legacies and all property now due or which may hereafter become due and owing to me, and give good and valid receipts and discharges for such payments; to sell, assign and transfer stocks and bonds and securities standing in my name or belonging to me; to buy and sell securities of all kinds in my name and for my account and at such prices as shall seem good to him in his sole discretion; to sign, execute, acknowledge and deliver in my name all transfers and assignments of securities; to borrow money and pledge securities for such loans if in the judgment of my attorney such action should be necessary; to manage real property, to sell, convey and mortgage realty, and to foreclose mortgages and to take title to property in my name if my attorney thinks proper; to execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds of real property, mortgages, releases, satisfactions and other instruments relating to realty which he considers necessary; to place and effect insurance; to do business with banks, and particularly to endorse all checks and drafts made payable to my order and collect the proceeds; to sign in my name checks on all accounts standing in my name, and to withdraw funds from said accounts; to open accounts in my name or in his name as my attorney in fact; to open accounts in savings and loan associations in my name or in his name as my attorney in fact, and to withdraw funds from said accounts; to make such payments and expenditures as may be necessary in connection with any of the foregoing matters or with the administration of my affairs; hereby granting and giving my said attorney in fact full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing
