KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Virginia Alexander, of Mauldin, South Carolina, do hereby make, constitute and appoint my nephew, Charles Painter, as my lawful attorney-in-fact, and empower him to do, for me, and on my behalf, any and all acts which I could do if personally present.

I intend to give my attorney-in-fact the fullest powers possible and do not intend, by the enumeration of his powers to limit or reduce them in any fashion.

Among the powers granted to my attorney-in-fact are the powers: to demand and sue for and recover and receive all debts, rents, interest, money, goods, and chattels due to me or that may become due to me or which belong to me or to which I may be entitled to possession; to make deposits to and/or withdrawals from any account or accounts which I may have at any banks, savings and loans, or other financial institutions; to execute and deliver receipts, releases and discharges; to make, endorse, accept, or deliver in my name or his name commercial paper, agreements, and other instruments that he deems necessary to carry out any powers granted to him by these presents; to manage my property, both real and personal; and to constitute, appoint, and authorize in his place and stead, with full power of revocation, other attorneys-in-fact for me, to exercise any or all of the powers granted to my attorney-in-fact by these presents.
