4. To renounce the dower interest of Sheryl Wilson Hoskins on any instruments concerning any transactions authorized by this General Power of Attorney, including, but not limited to deeds and mortgages executed under the terms of this power of attorney. In this connection, and by my signature affixed herein below before a notary public, I, Sheryl Wilson Hoskins, further represent hereby that I have been fully advised of my rights of dower under the laws of the State of South Carolina, and I further represent hereby that my appointment of Susan Elizabeth Imen Wilson as my attorney and agent to renounce my dower interest is done freely, voluntarily and without compulsion, dread or fear of any person or persons whomsoever, and without the presence of my husband, said Robert David Hoskins.

5. To invest and reinvest, from time to time, and as often as she may deem advisable, any and all funds and/or properties which we may own individually or together or in which we have any interest. In making investments, our attorney may invest in stocks, bonds, etc., and she shall not be limited to investments authorized by law for trust funds, but may exercise her judgment without regard to such restrictions and without liability for mistakes of judgment when made in good faith.
