

COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, ALLIE R. HOLLIFIELD, of said County and State, have made, constituted, and appointed and by these presents do make, constitute, and appoint my daughter, EMILIE H. GREEN my true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution, for me and in my name, place, and stead for the purposes hereinafter set out.

A. POWERS AND DUTIES: I hereby give and grant unto my attorney-in-fact full power and authority generally to manage and attend to all of my affairs, interests, and property, of every kind and description, real, personal, or mixed, and wherever located. The specific powers of my attorney-in-fact as set out herein are not meant to be exclusive or as a limitation on the generality of such power, authority, and discretion to perform any and all acts of whatever kind necessary to be done in managing and attending to all of my affairs, interests, and property as aforesaid, in the same manner and to the same extent as I myself might or could do if I were personally present. The said specific powers are as follows:

1. Collection of Assets: To ask, demand, sue for, recover, collect, and receive all sums of money, debts due, accounts, devises, bequests, interests, dividends, annuities, and demands whatsoever as are now, or shall hereafter become, due, owing, payable or belonging to me, particularly any sums which are now due or may become due from the Government of the United States or any branch thereof, and to use and take all lawful ways and means in my name or otherwise for the recovery thereof, by attachments, arrests, distress, or otherwise and to compromise and agree for the same and to give acquittances or other sufficient discharges for the same. To make claim for, execute proofs of claim, and otherwise take all steps necessary to collect any insurance to which I am entitled, particularly any health, accident, disability or hospital insurance, and in connection therewith to give receipts and, where deemed proper, to give releases and other acquittances.

2. Debts: To pay my just and legitimate obligations of whatever kind, and to incur such obligations as my attorney-in-fact deems proper.

3. Banking: To maintain anywhere, in the discretion of my attorney-in-fact, bank accounts and safe deposit boxes for me, to have full access to such accounts and safe deposit boxes, and also to have access to any bank account or safe deposit box that I may have heretofore established or rented or may hereafter establish or rent, wherever the same may be located, to make deposits and withdrawals and to place property in and remove property therefrom. This paragraph shall be in full effect for the complete protection of any bank affected until it shall have received written notice that this power of attorney has been revoked as provided hereafter in paragraph F.

4. Management of Assets: To retain, repair, improve, lease, convey, option, exchange, and sell any property or interest in property of every kind and description, real, personal, or mixed, and wherever located, owned by me in such a manner and for such a price and upon such terms as my attorney-in-fact deems fit and proper, and to receive such money or other property as may be due thereby; without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to sell, assign, and endorse, transfer upon the books of any corporation, and receive payment for any security or registered bond standing in my name, or any unregistered bond owned by me. In order to carry out the foregoing, my attorney-in-fact is authorized to endorse, sign or assign in my name said stock certificates or bonds or other instruments in connection therewith and to execute in my name deeds, leases, deeds of trust and other instruments conveying or encumbering real or personal property. To receive and to endorse any commercial paper, to adjust and settle any note, mortgage, deed of trust, or other obligation due me or owed by me, to credit payment of or cancel any note, mortgage, deed of trust, or other obligation to me upon proper payment being made, whether in full or by way of compromise or settlement.
