

I.

PURPOSE OF RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

1.1 The fundamental object and purpose of these restrictive covenants is to create a harmonious whole in the development or subdivision, to prevent the building of any structure which would be out-of-keeping with the other dwellings, to insure the use of the property for attractive residential purposes only, to prevent nuisances, to prevent the impairment of the attractiveness of the property, to maintain the desired tone of the community, to preserve the value of the property owned and developed by the owners of lots in the subdivision and to secure to each lot owner the full benefit and enjoyment of his home.

II.

USES PERMITTED AND PROHIBITED

2.1 All numbered lots in this subdivision shall be known and described as residential lots and shall be used exclusively for single family residential dwellings. No structure shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on any such lot other than one detached single-family dwelling not to exceed two and one-half stories in height exclusive of basement and a garage for private passenger automobile and servants quarters. The garage may be detached from the dwelling and no garage shall be of a size larger than necessary to park two automobiles plus storage area of reasonable size. However, garages will be permitted only upon review and approval of the Architectural Committee.

2.2 No trailer, mobile home, tent, shack, barn, or other outbuilding may be erected upon any lot except as provided for in Paragraph 2.1 above. No structure of a temporary nature shall be used as a residence.

2.3 No house trailer or mobile home shall be placed on any lot either temporarily or permanently. Any camping trailer, boats and/or
